

Teaching Notes:

- Luke felt this story of Jesus in the Temple was _____ enough to include it in his account of Jesus' life.
- All of us have had times when we felt like our families _____ _____ us.
- Conflict within families, particularly between the generations, is as _____
_____.
- Remember, even as an _____, Jesus' family did not understand him.
- Once, when he was at least 30 years of age, Mary, his mother, and his brothers came to him and pleaded with him to _____ and come home.
- Acts 1:12 indicates they were a _____ of the church after Christ's resurrection, but there was a time when they didn't understand him.
- Jesus' family didn't always understand him, but they were _____
_____ to him and he knew it.
- Jesus' family was _____ by mutual love and respect.
- Material blessings are not the only things that matter _____.
- The ability to accept and _____ will usually be enough to bind those basic bonds of love for the entirety of our lives.
